

LOST IN THE FIRE

Two Children Burned to Death
Near Petoskey.

SMITH AND HIS FURNITURE

He Attempts to Sell His Household Belongings, but Runs Up Against a Law Suit—State Items.

PETOSKEY, Mich., Jan. 19.—John Steinhilber's house about five miles from here, was burned yesterday. A baby 9 months old was burned to death, and another child, 2 years old, was burned in such a manner that it is expected to die any minute. The father and mother were badly blistered in trying to save the children, and the mother may die. The family lost everything they had and friends are now raising money for them, as their loss has placed them in needy circumstances.

SMITH'S TROUBLES MULTIPLY.

He Is Balked in Trying to Sell His Furniture.

DETROIT, Jan. 19.—On Friday last, the firm of O. Wardell & Sons bought through the Hannan Real Estate Exchange the household goods contained in the elegant mansion of George T. Smith, the famous muddings purifier man who has for many months past been in serious financial difficulties at Jackson. The value of the goods are estimated at anywhere from $10,000 to $20,000, the Wardells refusing to reveal the purchase price. The sale was made in a jump, and the goods were shipped to Detroit on a Michigan Central train on Saturday. It was claimed that the purchase was made under the sanction of George T. Smith, who possessed the necessary power of attorney from his wife. When the goods arrived in Detroit, however, the railroad company refused to surrender them to the Wardells. When authority for their action was demanded a telegram was produced from Frank Smith, a son of George T., who asserted that the goods belonged to his mother, and that neither his father nor Hannan had any legal right to dispose of them. The goods are still held at the depot, and there is likely to be some interesting legal complications before the matter is finally settled. A suit has been begun in trover to recover.

PAID FOR THEIR KEEPING.

Jackson Prison Earnings Exceed Expenses by $2364.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 19.—The auditor-general reports to Governor Winans that the net earnings at the state prison in Jackson for 1901 were $110,835.49, as compared with $108,384 in 1900. The earnings exceed the current expenses by $2,364, and a saving of $25,544 as compared with 1900 is figured out. Allowing for the two months during which the furniture factory was shut down, for special disbursements to the state for the current expense account and for 1,000,000 of lumber in excess of what was on hand at the close of 1900, a saving of $7,764 in 1901 as compared with the previous year shown. For the reformatory at Ionia the net earnings during 1901 at this institution were $65,211 and the net current expenses $55,681. The gross current expenses of the Marquette penitentiary for 1901 were $55,890 and the net earnings $60,400. Comparison with the previous year is rendered difficult on account of the difference in the number of prisoners and for other reasons, but a saving of $355 is figured out in favor of the present management.

SUDDENLY CRAZED.

Bloomfield Tried to Kill His Family With a Shotgun.

DETROIT, Jan. 19.—Until last week Anthony Bloomfield had been a quiet, law-abiding citizen of Romulus township. Then suddenly, in the middle of the night, he became violently insane, and drove his family out into the snow and darkness with a loaded shotgun. He chased them barefooted across the fields until they finally gained refuge in the house of a neighbor. Bloomfield then returned to his home and barricaded the doors against intruders. After many maneuvers on the part of the neighbors, he was finally persuaded to admit a party of them. He was captured and disarmed, a loaded double-barreled shotgun, revolver and four ferocious looking butcher knives being taken from him. Since that time he has been guarded by his neighbors, and yesterday Benjamin F. Vealey, one of the number, came to Detroit and asked the probate court to send him to the Pontiac asylum. It is thought that insanity was caused by the sudden stoppage of chronic bleeding at the nose, with which he had been afflicted for years, causing a blood clot on the brain.

JACKSON IN DARKNESS.

The City Treasury Exhausted and No Cash is Available.

JACKSON, Jan. 19.—Last night the city fathers forgot or otherwise omitted to order the monthly electric light bill paid, and in consequence the committee on lighting today notified the company to shut off the lights. The difficulty is largely owing to the city's wretched financial condition. There is not money enough in the lighting fund to last the year out, and other funds are in the same condition. A short time ago the council decided to economize, and one of the measures was to order the lights turned out at midnight. This would have made a saving of $5,000 per year, but such a tremendous howl went up from the people that the scheme was abandoned. The cause of the general shortage is low assessments made by the supervisors of the various wards for political effect.

STOOD OFF WITH A SHOTGUN.

A Woman Makes a Valiant Attempt to Prevent the Arrest of a Desperado.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 19.—John Henry, the keeper of dives at Trout Lake and Champion, was arrested at the latter place Sunday on a charge of robbery. Two officers who appeared at the front door of Henry's ranch were met by a woman armed with a shotgun and made to stand back. One of them, however, went to the rear of the building and caught Henry as he was trying to escape through a window. A local paper accuses Henry of being implicated in the murder of John Thompson, the mining paymaster who was mysteriously slain the night of January 3.

Saginaw's Crooked Officials.

Saginaw, Mich., Jan. 19.—Another municipal sensation was sprung last night in the council meeting. Mayor Woodcock sent a message offering charges against still another city official.

John C. Mathews, the city clerk. Official misconduct, malfeasance in office and unfaithful performance of his duties are alleged. The charges are very lengthy and Mayor Woodcock gives definite information as to the time he alleges Mathews to have misappropriated.

Heroic Kalamazoo Soldiers.

KALAMAZOO, Jan. 19.—Company C, of the second regiment of Michigan state troops, sent today a memorial to Governor Winans, passed last night, urging that they be the first Michigan company called out in case of a war with Chili.

Right Below "Nothing."

LUDENOVIC, Jan. 19.—Thermometer 9 degrees below, last night. Not cold enough to hurt fruit buds, but people don't want it to go much further.
